Transportation

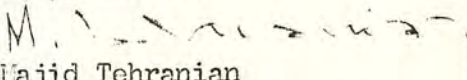

"There are," according to MESA's announcement, "frequent flights to the Columbus International Airport from most major cities; consult your travel agent for the best route. No buses or limousines operate directly between the airport and the places of lodging mentioned; however, taxis are readily available. Since Columbus is rather centrally located in the U. S., many will find it convenient to travel by car."

Weather Conditions

November in Columbus produces variable weather, so bring a raincoat and a sweater.

We hope that you can join us at the meeting, and if so, we look forward to welcoming you at the Center for Tomorrow on November 5th.

Sincerely yours

Majid Tehranian
Secretary to the Society
